

Carol Barbagallo

February 25, 1936 - January 19, 2024

Carol Marie Barbagallo, age 87, passed away peacefully on January 19, 2024. Carol was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She dedicated her life in support of her family and spent her life in the New York metropolitan area.

Carol worked as an insurance adjuster until she retired in 2001. She enjoyed traveling and was especially fond of taking cruises and visiting many places throughout Europe and the Caribbean. She was a wonderful cook who was always happy to have something ready to eat when you visited, enjoyed reading books of many genres, and loved to crochet and sew. Earlier in life, for many years, Carol volunteered as an arts and crafts instructor for summer programs and became a girl scout leader. Years later she would occasionally run into former girl scouts who complimented her for being a positive role model in their youth.

Carol was pre-deceased by her beloved husband, Joseph (Joe), her daughter JoAnn, grandson Tommy Quigley and her sister Virginia Novaro. She is survived by her loving children, Ross (Ramona) Barbagallo, Patricia (Tom) Quigley, Michel Barbagallo, Carol Barbagallo as well as her grandsons Joe Barbagallo, Stefan Rabino, her great-granddaughter Brianna Quigley, and many nieces and nephews.

Carol loved life, had a great sense of humor, and will be deeply missed.

A gathering of family and friends will take place on Thursday from 3-7 p.m. at The John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals and Cremation Services, Inc. 111 Main Street Matawan. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:30 a.m. on Friday at St. Thomas the Apostle Church 50 Maguire Avenue Staten Island NY . Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery.

“ My Grandmother was the best Grandmother I could ever have that made all our hearts feel happy, she Cooked so well, her food tasted so good, she always made me feel like home 🏠 ! Her peas and macaroni tasted so well and it felt like feeling the aesthetic cooking sounds on tv. I will cherish every moment I had with her and I love her for the rest of my life. And now. And now she made rest in peace.

“ I knew Carol as Mrs. Barbagallo. Her daughter Patricia was my best friend growing up. Mrs. Barbagallo was my best friend's mother and also was my Girl Scout leader. She generously volunteered her time to work with young girls in scouting while raising 4 children, and also during the time when she was pregnant with her daughter Carol. I still have my Girl Scout sash and it is full of badges that I earned with guidance from Mrs. Barbagallo. I remember she organized a memorable trip for our scout troop to the Amish country. I am so grateful for Mrs. Barbagallo's guidance while growing up. My condolences to Patricia, Ross, Michelle, Carol, and their families. My thoughts are with all of you as you are going through this difficult time. May you all find comfort and peace. Marianne “ Carol was a good friend to me. I'm glad I got to see her over the years. She was a straight shooter--telling it like it is. Never too wordy, just to the point. I loved that about her. She had a wonderful sense of humor and an open heart. She knew that I loved her and I will never forget her.

With sympathy,

Deborah Pisicolo

P.s. Carol,

I will come and visit you at the cemetery... my parents, grandmother and sister are there too. I will honor you in that way.

With love always. ❤️👉❤️👉
