

Charles Loredo

May 21, 1927 - March 4, 2024

Charles F. Loredo, 96 years of age, passed away at home on March 4th 2024 after long struggle with chronic health issues. Charles, better known as Chic, was born on May 21, 1927 in Plymouth PA. Eldest son to Anthony and Mary Loredo, he grew up in the  Ironbound  section of Newark, New Jersey where he met his future wife of 74 1/2 years at the age of 14. After graduating high school, he entered the military and served our country as a medic in the Army with a sergeant status. He was honorably discharged after his two years of service, and then began his long career in the fencing and construction industry where he became an ironworker foreman for most of his career. During this timeframe, Chic and Mary started to date and eventually became engaged, and then married on May 29th 1949. They had two children, son Thomas and daughter Linda. After 74 1/2 years of marriage, his beloved wife passed away and now six months later he has joined her once again. Chic was a dedicated and proud family man, an avid reader, a huge Yankee fan and loved an occasional rolling rock beer with his German daughter Stacy and his dear friend Jack He survived by his daughter Linda, Linda s partner Josephine, ex-daughter-in-law Stacy Moeller, son Thomas, daughter-in-law Lori, granddaughter Alexandra and her husband Nick.