“ Wayne was a welcome addition to our family and was a loving father to his two beautiful daughters, Hannah, and Sarah and a loving husband to Florrie. He was also a tangible link for our family to our Mother's homeland of Wales. I personally always looked forward to talking with him, he had insights that helped to broaden my understanding of the world and always managed to bring a smile to my face, even when we disagreed!!! He was my brother in law, but I thought of him as a blood brother and will truly miss him. To Hannah and Sarah, I want you to know that love does not end, not now, not ever, he will always be in your heart, and every song you play, every goal you score, every lesson you learn, every tear you shed, every joy you have in your life will be shared with him. Now is the time to cry for your loss, tomorrow and everyday afterwards is the time to live your life to the fullest knowing that that is what your Father wanted your lives to be...

*With all our love,
Aunt Cindy and Uncle Michael*

“ Wayne had time to think about what is really important. He was looking forward to going home and living without regret. To enjoy family and life more. Let stress go and pray for God's strength. Wayne had a good soul and I believe he is in heaven with all the one's we love.
