

Philip P. Coyle

May 28, 1941 - May 3, 2025

Philip P. Coyle, of Old Bridge, New Jersey, passed away on May 3, 2025, at the age of 83.

Born Wednesday, May 28, 1941, in Mineola, New York, to Hugh and Lucille Coyle, Philip was one of four children, raised in New York. He enlisted in the U.S. Army at the age of 18, proudly serving his country from 1959 to 1961. After completing his service, he settled in New Jersey, where he dedicated over 60 years to the moving industry. Philip built a successful career, eventually becoming the proud owner of his own moving company, which he ran for more than 35 years.

Philip was known to all who met him as "Everyone's Best Friend." His warm personality and friendly nature made him a fixture in his community. Whether it was a smile, a kind word, or lending a helping hand, Philip had a remarkable way of making people feel at ease. His love for sports, particularly baseball, was evident, and he enjoyed spending his free time watching games, going on long walks with his dog, and relaxing at the beach.

An adoring partner, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, Philip will be remembered for his unwavering kindness, infectious charm, and his genuine ability to make everyone feel like family.

Philip is predeceased by his sons Philip and Bryan, by his brothers Hugh and David, and by his sister Sheila.

Philip is survived by his beloved partner of 35 years Marian, by his caring daughter Christine, by his loving grandchildren Rachel, John, Alyssa, and Ann Marie, and by his cherished great grandchildren Beau and Alivia.

A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, May 12, 2025 from 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals & Cremation Services Inc. located at 111 Main Street Matawan, New Jersey 07747.

Philip's legacy of kindness and friendship will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
