

Susan Boylan

January 18, 2022

DUE TO THE IMPENDING SNOW STORM, THE MEMORIAL GATHERING HAS BEEN CANCELLED.

Susan Boylan, 69, of Matawan, New Jersey went home to the Lord on Tuesday, January 18, 2022.

Susan was born and raised on Staten Island, NY. After graduating from Port Richmond High School Susan attended the Clair National Education Alliance & Wilfred Academy of Hair and Beauty Culture. More recently Susan would move to Matawan to be closer to family.

Susan was passionate about serving in Christian church ministries, participating in bible studies as well as prayer groups. She was known for lending an ear without judgment, encouraging others, and sharing God's love by making anyone she met feel special, as if they were her own family.

She thoroughly enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking, baking, decorating, crafting, gardening, shopping, sewing, knitting, listening to her favorite music, and sharing photos of her favorite "Granddog" Snoopy. She was fond of Sight & Sound Theatres in Lancaster, PA, and would visit often.

Susan was predeceased by her loving husband Peter Boylan and her beloved daughters, Suzanne Taverna and Crystal Taverna, and by her caring brother James Napolitano.

Susan (Napolitano) Boylan devoted most of her life to raising her family and caring for anyone who was in need. She is survived by her two daughters: Janine Sharif (husband, Hassan Sharif) and Christina Taverna (Fiancé, Samantha Alexander), as well as her siblings: Christine Cook, Michael Napolitano and Michele Murphy.

Please be advised that if you are attending the memorial services that masks and social distancing practices are required.

In lieu of flowers, donations made in memory of Susan Boylan are welcome to the following charitable organizations:

*Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center - www.giving.mskcc.org

*On Your Mark - www.onyourmark.org

*Save U.S. Pets Foundation - www.saveuspets.org

*Bridge Women's Center - www.bridgewomenscenter.com

Tribute Wall

MP

“ FROM: MARY PIETRICOLA

To all of Susan's family, you'll be in my prayers—the Lord be a comfort to all.

*It's taking a little while because I had sorrow... but Jesus says lift up YOUR head for my daughter Sue is now with me. She says I FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT...I HAVE finished the race....I have KEPT the FAITHThere is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge will give me on that day.
2Timothy 4-7.*

Mary Pietricola - February 13, 2022 at 12:06 PM

VF

“ First, let me offer my deepest condolences and prayers to you all. May she rest in the sweetest peace with our Lord who she loved immensely.

I had the pleasure of meeting Sue when she started dating Peter. She and I had an immediate connection from the moment we met. If you were to ask me what it was; I'd say a genuine love for the same things in life and just both having compassion and love for people as well. She always was very concerned about my son who has high functioning Autism and would pray for him in all of his challenges. When her beloved Peter was sick and near death, she texted me constantly with updates knowing how much he meant to me and how concerned I was. In her despair, she never ceased to make sure I was informed. I can't say enough good things about her. I loved her and will miss her terribly. My family and I were blessed to have known such a beautiful woman. Cherish the memories as I will. She loved her family and friends. Never forget that! Until we meet again..SHALOM!!

“Yeah, word!”

Vicky Melone & family - January 26, 2022 at 01:54 PM

ML

“ I met our lovely Sue at Soul's Harbor church, SI in 1981. We recently reunited by phone, this past year. What a joy to speak to her! She always had laughter in her voice, and love for all, especially for her family. She was so excited to move into your new home together! Thru some health challenges, she always depended on our Faithful Lord Jesus & His Word. I will greatly miss our long chats, but just know that I am blessed to have known her!! What a beautiful legacy she's left you....faith in Him. Praying for you all. Min. Moira Lamonica. ❤️

Moira Lamonica - January 26, 2022 at 01:35 PM